of the most striking sites in Europe, St. Michel. Built between the 11th and 16th centuries, the abbey is perched on a rocky islet in the midst of vast sandbanks exposed to powerful tides. It is known as the 'Wonder of the West', and is a Gothic-style Benedictine abbey dedicated to the archangel St Michael. Time for sightseeing. Upon confirmation, sing a concert at St. Michel. Continue to Caen for dinner and overnight.

Day 5 D-Day Beaches / Peace Museum

Guided tour of the city of Caen including a visit to the Memorial for Peace Museum. This will give us an overview of World War II and, of course, the D-Day invasion. Our local historical guide will be with us for two days to escort us through Normandy where US Troops and its Allies landed on June 6, 1944. Return to the hotel. This evening sing an advertised concert for the locals. Overnight Caen.

Day 6 Normandy / Beaches

Today we will visit the beaches of Normandy, including Juno and Gold where the Brits and Canadians landed. See German artillery guns still standing at Longues-sur-Mer and on to Omaha Beach and Utah Beach where most Americans landed. Also see the Colleville American Cemetery where 9,385 carrera marble crosses stand marking American soldier's graves. Sing a memorial service at the cemetery. Overnight Caen.

Day 7 Bruges / Grand Palace / Choco Museum

Early breakfast and depart for Bruges, Belgium. Bruges is known as the most perfectly preserved medieval city in Europe. Located on a complex network of canals, enjoy this unique city. Walking tour in the morning including the convent, the Grand Palace, the gothic style town hall, the covered marketplace and the Saint Sang Basilica. The tour will end at the Chocolate Museum. Perhaps you will visit the Lace Museum, the Diamond Museum or the historical Brewery.

Day 8 Free Day in Bruges

Free day to explore Bruges. Your guide will be renting a bike to traverse the flat canals out to a local village for a fantastic morning of exercise and sightseeing. You will also have a ticket for a ride through the idyllic canals of Bruges by boat. This evening perform a concert in Bruges. Dinner and overnight Bruges.

Day 9 Delft / Gouda

This morning we will continue through the lowlands to Delft, Netherlands. Visit a Delft Blue pottery factory. The Dutch explorers brought back Chinese porcelain and the Delft potters started to copy the patterns. Delft became famous around the world for its beautiful blue pottery. Continue to the town of Gouda. Time for exploring the cheese markets, cheese museum, Gothic city hall and cathedral. Continue to hotel near Amsterdam.

Day 10 Amsterdam / Volendam

This morning enjoy a panorama tour of Amsterdam. Continue to 'Zaanse Schans', a well-known windmill village where you will visit a wooden shoemaker. Then visit Volendam, a picturesque fishing village for lunch where the inhabitants wear traditional Dutch costume. Return to Amsterdam for free time. This evening perform a concert in Amsterdam or nearby village.

Day 11 Amsterdam

Free day in Amsterdam for sightseeing and last minute shopping. Perhaps you will visit the 'Rijksmuseum' to view the famous dolls' houses, the finest Delftware, a wealth of silver, icons of Dutch history and the paintings by the great masters of the 17th century, Frans Hals, Jan Steen, Vermeer and Rembrandt. Experience Rembrandt's famous painting Night Watch, along with the more than 400 other Dutch masterpieces on display. Or perhaps you will visit the Anne Frank House, the Heineken Brewery or the Van Gogh Museum. Farewell dinner this evening.

Day 12 Depart for Home

Depart on flight home where you will arrive the same day.
